

L. Scott Frantz
President and Chairman
Haebler Capital
Chairman, Bradley International
Airport Board of Directors

L. Scott Frantz - Mr. Frantz is President and Chairman of Haebler Capital, a private investment company located in Greenwich, Connecticut with interests in private and public equity markets, venture capital, the specialty coffee trading business, the restaurant business and industrial privatization in emerging markets.

Mr. Frantz is Chairman of the Connecticut Development Authority and of the Bradley International Airport Board of Directors and is a director of the Connecticut Brownfields Redevelopment Authority, Haebler Capital, AI Squared, Inc., Marina America, Inc., Granite Ventures and Directorship, Inc. He also serves as a board member on the following nonprofit and club organizations: Corporate Angel Network (Advisory), Connecticut Republican Finance Committee, American Everest Foundation, Veteran's Appreciation Council, Greenwich Country Day School, and the Greenwich Teen Center

Mr. Frantz lives in Riverside, Connecticut with his wife, Icy, and four children. He graduated from Princeton University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1982 and from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth in 1986 with an MBA. He enjoys all sports, particularly ocean racing, mountain climbing and sculling.