

Thomas J. Shields
Managing Director
Shields & Company, Inc.

Thomas Shields has extensive experience in mergers and acquisitions, syndications, fairness opinions, public offerings, litigation support (including expert witness testimony), and financial advisory services. Prior to co-founding Shields & Company, Inc. in 1991, he was managing director of Bear Stearns & Co. Mr. Shields serves on the Boards of Directors of numerous public and private companies. He is a past president of the Harvard Business School Association of Boston, and a former chairman of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital. Mr. Shields has an AB from Harvard College and an MBA from Harvard Business School.